Prospectus for 1874,

Seventh Year.

The Aldine,

An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste

Not for Sale in Book or News Stores

THE ALDINE while issued with all the regularity has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals It is an elegant miscellany of pure light and graceful literature and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill in black and white Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year While other publications may claim superior cheapness as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost and then there are the chromos besides

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world wide reputation and in the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained The common prejudice in favor of steel plates is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production The wood cuts of THE ALDINE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy and other noted American artists, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest Thus the subscriber to THE ALDINE will at a trifling cost enjoy in his own home the pleasures and refining influences of true art

The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Thomas Moran and J D Woodward

The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season by our best artists and will surpass in attractions any of its predecessors

PREMIUM FOR 1874

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE by Thomas Moran whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars The subjects were chosen to represent The East and The West One is a view in the White Mountains New Hampshire the other gives The Cliffs of Green River Wyoming Territory The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves is a pleasing contrast and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates and are in size (12 x 16) and appearance exact facsimiles of the originals The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but peculiarly happy idea and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial over the signature of Mr Moran himself

NEWARK N J Sept 20th 1873

MESSRS JAMES SUTTON & CO.

Gentlemen —I am delighted with the proofs in color of our chromos They are wonderfully successful representations by mechanical process of the original paintings

Very respectfully
(Signed) THOS MORAN.

These chromos are in every sense American They are by an original American process with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal If no better because of all this they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire and neither are they any the worse if by reason of peculiar facilities of production they cost the publishers only a trifle while equal in every respect to other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of THE ALDINE Persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves—not for the price they did or did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders their distribution possible

If any subscriber should indicate a preference for a figure subject the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home" a new and beautiful chromo 14x20 inches representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart

TERMS.

$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free

For 50 cents extra, the chromos will be sent mounted varnished and prepaid by mail,

THE ALDINE will, hereafter be obtained only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the fac simile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co

CANVASSERS WANTED.

Foreclosure of Mortgage.

Whereas [illegible] E Parsons of Brewer in the County of Penobscot and State of Maine by his mortgage deed dated June 25th A D 1872 and recorded in the Registry of Deeds for said County of Penobscot vol 424 page 15, mortgaged to Jacob F Hardy of Orono in said county and State a certain tract or parcel of land situated in said Orono and bounded as follows, viz Beginning at the northeast corner at the angle made by the Bangor, Oldtown and Milford Railroad and the road intersecting it leading to Gilmburn thence westerly on the line of said road to the west line of said lot, adjoining the Elisha H Allen lot so called thence northerly on the line of said lot to within one rod of the west line of the above mentioned railroad, thence northerly by a line parallel with the west line of said railroad to a point joining a right angle with the switch of said railroad near said Hardy's house; thence easterly to the west line of said railroad one rod, thence northerly on the line of said railroad to the place of beginning being ten acres more or less

And whereas the said Hardy by his deed of assignment dated the eighth day of January, A D 1874, recorded in said Registry, vol. 438 page [illegible], assigned said mortgage, the real estate and covenants therein named, and the claim demand or debt thereby secured to Mr Thomas C Farris and Jahaziah S Webb both of Bangor in said county and State.

Now the condition of said mortgage being broken by reason thereof we hereby claim a foreclosure of the same, and give this notice accordingly.

CO-EDUCATION OF THE SEXES

CO EDUCATION OF THE SEXES —This question of co education which has been answered favorably, so far as good will goes by the University of Zurich and in a degree by the Russian Government presents itself to every university and to every observer of the times. Two years ago the lord ordinary of the Edinburgh University decided after a long and warm debate and an appeal from authority to authority that as the universities of Scotland were largely constituted upon the model of Bologna and other institutions from which women were not barred cannot have been intended to exclude them from those founded in Scotland This decision however has been set aside within the last year But the English universities now hold local examinations for women and confer degrees And Harvard, the most ancient of American schools, while refusing to open her doors to co education follows her English sisters in examinations and degrees Even Columbia College the most conservative of colleges now admits women to some of her lectures while Cornell and the Michigan University open their doors wide to men and women together and Antioch and Oberlin and other schools have long known no sex in study

It is plain that the question of co education —that is, the teaching of young men and women together in the college as they are taught in the academy and in the common school—has now laid hold of the public mind with a grasp that amazement and contempt and incredulity and bigotry at least can not shake off At Williams College, when the proposition was made, the majority of the [illegible] skillfully evaded the direct encounter of the question by falling back upon the charter and the simulation of interpretation All the forces upon all sides are engaged and the real although not the formal victory seems to be gained that is the best opportunity of education should be opened to women as to men The point that the education shall be pursued under exactly the same conditions is not yet carried and there success of the contest here does not depend upon moral or social or political but in a serious degree upon structural considerations It is very much a physiological question, to which science, actual knowledge must furnish the solution. The little book of Dr E H Clarke, Sex in Education is the latest contribution to the discussion Dr Clarke is an eminent physician late Professor of Materia Medica in Harvard College, and the tone and spirit of his essay with perhaps two or three exceptions of a [illegible] strain, can not fairly offend the advocates of co education Some of the [illegible] indeed assaulting him with great ardor and entire sincerity beat the air For while he speaks of function and structure they speak of morals and political economy It certainly is not a subject for heat or rhetoric or denunciation Whatever may be thought of Dr Clarke's scientific conclusions in which Professor Agassiz declared that he fully concurred, he spares us all dull twaddle about the natural inequality of the sexes and he limits [illegible] a woman's range of study by her [illegible] or her sex He says that a woman's brain is just like man's that there is no reason whatever why she should not study any subject to which she is attracted Only—and this is the point—she must study as a woman [illegible] as a man, and for the very simple physiological reasons which he plainly states and with [illegible] the modifications which for four or five years should be made in the methods of study

Some of the facts upon which the doctor's [illegible] have however been authoritatively questioned He makes statements in regard to Vassar College and the treatment there which are absolutely denied according to Mrs. Dall by the resident physician at the college, Dr Avery And it is in this direction that the Easy Chair looks for further light upon the real position of Dr Clarke's [illegible] accomplished and [illegible] woman [illegible] who has had very large experience directly opposes Dr Clarke and says that in her opinion, not as an advocate but as a woman and a parent there is no reason whatever of the kind he suggests why the girls during the time that he mentions should not study precisely as boys do and that her experience fortifies the conclusions of her science the doctor must lower his pennant and withdraw What an immense victory over the prejudice and reluctance of ages that the question is drawn to such a simple point And how admirably becoming to its consideration are perfect candor and coolness Some years ago Mr Higginson asked in one of his sparkling papers, "Shall women learn the alphabet?" and last spring at the annual meeting of the Social Science Association he brilliantly routed the flying rear guard of old objection And now Dr Clarke courteously salutes him and says that there is no further question save as to how women shall learn the alphabet —Harper's for February

THE LAST OFFICIAL ACT OF GOVERNOR NOYES OF OHIO —A Cincinnati paper tells the following story of the last moments of the official life of Governor Noyes of Ohio While an immense crowd of people was collecting about the State house to witness the inaugural ceremonies (for it began to assemble early in the day) an affecting incident was taking place in the executive chamber, of which there were but one or two eye witnesses Hundreds of guests had called and scores were calling to say their good byes to Governor Noyes Among those who entered the chamber, however was an old man, thin, wrinkled, pale and gray haired and much bent by age and manifest suffering He timidly asked to see the governor, who stepped aside to a window with him. The old man said he would have called before, but had been ill. He came at that late hour to make an appeal for the pardon of an erring son, who had been confined in the penitentiary for seven years, and who had three more to stay. "What is the name of your son?" asked the governor The old man gave it. Governor Noyes then, without making him any definite reply, requested him to step into his private room and wait till he was at leisure The fact was, the pardon had been granted early that morning, and the old man's daughter had already gone to carry the pardon to her brother and accompany him from the penitentiary to the governor's office In a few moments the liberated man arrived with his sister neither expecting to find the father there, and the father not dreaming that the pardon had already been granted – One can readily imagine the scene as the governor conducted the two to his private room The son flew to his father and embraced him, and then flinging his arms around the governor's neck, covered his face with kisses The old man, overcome by the great happiness of the moment, sank into his chair, sobbing like a child There were no dry eyes in that room and those who, a few minutes later, were talking and chatting with the retiring governor in the reception room, little imagined in what a touchingly pathetic scene he had been a participant. The liberated man has a wife and child eight years old, a sister and aged parents. It will be a pleasant reflection during his lifetime to Governor Noyes that it was one of the last acts of his executive power to fill one household with the sunshine of happiness, and to restore the beloved one long separated from them who had fearfully condoned for his crime

MORTON'S FINANCIAL SPEECH.

[From the Boston Advertiser.]

Senator Morton takes sides on the financial question with those who think that watering the currency makes more of it. In his recent speech in the Senate he seems to have repeated all the arguments against contraction that have been used during the last half dozen years, with one or two new ones. It may be that Mr. Morton believes the undoubted fact, that the mass of people in the Northwest deem the circulation too small—a reason why there should be more of it; but it strikes us as a weak conclusion for such a leader of public opinion as Mr. Morton's friends consider him. The old per capita argument was used again, but, unless the telegraph misrepresented the Senator, with false statistics. The total note circulation in the United Kingdom during the month of November last including the bank of England, Scotland and Ireland, the joint stock and private banks, was £44,634,000, or about $220,000,000, not six hundred millions, as the report declares Mr. Morton to have said. But even were his figures correct, there is a difference which Mr. Morton ought to understand, between bank notes instantly payable in gold on demand and government circulation redeemable at pleasure. Again, when Mr. Morton states that there is hardly a man in England who lives five miles from a bank, we think he can hardly know what he is talking about, unless he refers to sand banks or post office saving banks. There are in all seventy joint stock banks doing business in all England, Scotland and Ireland—about three-quarters as many as there are national banks in Indiana. There are no restrictions on private banking without circulation, and what influence the private banks of Great Britain have on the currency may be seen from the fact that their aggregate circulation is less than sixteen millions dollars.

The Senator is to be credited with a new idea in his comparison of European countries to show that those countries which have an irredeemable currency have made the most progress. If the argument is worth anything it proves that a bad currency is advantageous, and we doubt if even Mr. Morton would go so far as that. "Progress" is a very indefinite term, and may refer to a great many things. The only test we can apply safely is the volume of foreign trade, and here, though Mr. Morton's figures—which, by the way, he does not give—apparently support his view, they are really deceptive. By the census of 1860 Minnesota had apparently increased in population some thousand per cent. during the previous decade, but as she had only six thousand inhabitants in 1850 the percentage did not tell the whole story. The table of imports and exports from various European countries does show a slightly larger percentage of gain in the countries Mr. Morton named, but with the exception of Germany, which tells neither for nor against his position, the growth was from a very low point. Besides, there were special reasons why each of the paper currency countries should have increased their foreign trade. Austria has of late years only abandoned the idea of political greatness, and has devoted herself to internal development, under a wise emperor. Italy was the youngest of nations ten years ago, and only within that period has she had a chance to grow at all. Russia, too, has but recently paid great attention to herself. One fifth of the exports of Austria and one-quarter of those of Russia consist of grain and flour. That the difference between the growth of Italy, Austria and Russia does not greatly exceed that of France and England, even in percentage, will be seen by the following table.

AUSTRIA.

Imports.		Exports.
1862,	£25,800,000	1862,	£15,100,000

Gain 68 per cent.		Gain 72 per cent.

But after all, these are minor points. It is not by such comparisons nor by such arguments that this great question should be decided. The popular clamor for more money no more makes it wise to issue more money than the recent outcry against Spain made it expedient to declare war. The sneer about "the visions of John Stuart Mill" injures the reputation only of its author. Political economy is not theory, it is the statement of economical lessons drawn from history. All experience is against the inflationist. There is as little uncertainty about the effect of increasing the volume of the currency in raising prices without relieving the country from periods of stringency as there is concerning the return of the seasons.

THE BAY AND RIVER RAILROAD. An important meeting of the Directors of the Boston & Maine, Knox & Lincoln and Penobscot Bay & River Railroad Companies was held in Boston Wednesday, at which the subject of pushing forward the Bay & River line to this city was fully and favorably discussed. A committee has been appointed on behalf of the Boston & Maine to visit this section with a view of promoting the enterprise and the arrangements which have been perfected doubtless insure the establishment of another through line between this city and Boston, tapping all the thriving communities along the shore of the Penobscot.

With regard to the vote on the House inflation resolution of Monday, the Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune says: "That the thirty-seven majority obtained by the inflationists can be counted upon to pass a bill providing a specific plan for increasing the currency, is very doubtful. The affirmative vote was made up of those who favor more greenbacks, those who want more National bank circulation, and the 3.65 bond men. It is a discordant majority that cannot be expected to harmonize on any practical measure, and if it could, the Senate would not pass it; so there is no reason for business men to feel alarmed at the vote."

An analysis of the vote shows that members from the West and South voted almost solidly for it, and the members from the North and East of New York voted solidly against it. Only three out of twenty-one New Yorkers voted yea, nine out of twenty-two Pennsylvanians voted no, as also did six out of eighteen Ohioans, and four out of fifteen Illinoisans. All the members from Missouri voted yea, while the Kentucky members were divided, four in favor and four against. Of the members of the Ways and Means Committee, Dawes, Burchard, Roberts, Kasson, Waldron, Foster and Beck voted no; Kelley, Sheldon and Niblack, aye; and Wood was absent.

The Boston Traveller says: "It is most gratifying to learn, as our citizens do from the chief of police, that the number of places where liquor is sold, in this city, is decreasing; and as a natural result, there is a decrease of drunkenness and crime."

Gerald Massey, in his speech at the Franklin dinner at Boston, last Saturday night, said, referring to the United States: "I see a people that seem to go as on the very tiptoe of expectation; as if the dawn of some mighty future had touched their forehead; as if they had vitality and energy of growth to attain such a stature of humanity that the shadow of it shall measure the vastness of this great continent."

The Bishop of Nismes lately received, as a reply to his recent pastoral, two visiting cards—one from Madame Hyacinthe de Loyson, and the other from "Hyacinthe Loyson, curé of Geneva," on which were written the following lines: "With our Christian pardon for the gross insults which you have heaped upon us."

The population of Boston, based on the Assessors' returns of 1873, will be, May 1st, 1874, 357,254, divided as follows: Boston, 308,875; Charlestown, 32,040; West Roxbury, 10,361; Brighton, 5,978.

THE CONFIRMATION OF JUDGE WAITE. The Washington special of the Boston Advertiser, writing on Wednesday evening, says: "Mr. Waite was confirmed as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States to-day, by a vote which was never equalled in its favorable character within the memory of the oldest Senator. The nomination was discussed for an hour, during which speeches were made by Mr. Sumner, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Edmunds. The speech of Mr. Sumner is spoken of as one of the best and most impressive which he ever delivered in the Senate. While in no sense opposing the confirmation of Mr. Waite, he spoke with much feeling of the importance of the office and the great responsibility of the Senate. He paid a high tribute to the profession of law and to some of the great judges and lawyers of the past. Mr. Sherman spoke of Mr. Waite's high standing at home, and assured the Senate that there was not a man in the world who had the respect and admiration of his neighbors to a greater degree than he. Not a breath of suspicion or reproach had ever been cast on him, and the Senator did not believe a man existed whose character was more spotless or whose sense of justice and honor was more acute. He answered many questions propounded by Senators from time to time with reference to Mr Waite and his character and abilities. During the entire discussion not a word was said in opposition to the nominee. The nomination was spoken of by all as creditable. When the discussion was exhausted a motion was made to take a vote, and this was done, as an additional compliment to Mr. Waite, by ayes and nays, and the result was something which has rarely if ever occurred in the Senate. He received every vote cast. Sixty-three Senators voted for his confirmation, and not one against him. He was at once notified by telegraph. One of the associate justices says that he knows that the court is very well satisfied with the result and that the new Chief Justice will be welcomed with hearty good-will."

On the question, "Will the Senate advise and consent to the appointment?" the vote was as follows:

Senators Allison, Anthony, Bayard, Bogy, Boreman, Boutwell, Brownlow, Buckingham, Cameron, Carpenter, Chandler, Clayton, Conkling, Conover, Cooper, Cragin, Crozier, Davis, Edmunds, Fenton, Ferry of Connecticut, Ferry of Michigan, Flanagan, Frelinghuysen, Gilbert, Goldthwaite, Gordon, Hamilton of Texas, Hamlin, Hitchcock, Howe, Ingalls, Jones, Kelly, Lewis, Logan, McCreery, Merrimon, Mitchell, Morrill of Maine, Morrill of Vermont, Morton, Oglesby, Patterson, Pratt, Ramsey, Ransom, Robertson, Sargent, Saulsbury, Schurz, Scott, Sherman, Spencer, Stevenson, Stewart, Stockton, Thurman, Tipton, Wadleigh, West and Wright—63.

Absent or not voting—Senators Alcorn, Ames, Dennis, Dorsey, Hamilton of Maryland, Johnston, Sprague, Sumner and Windom—9

The injunction of secresy was removed from the vote as above given.

LOUISIANA FINANCES. The proposed Constitutional amendments limiting the State debt to $15,000,000, and taxation for all purposes to $12,500,000, guaranteeing principal and interest of the new consolidated bonds to be issued in funding the debt and providing that the revenues each year derived from taxation be devoted solely to the expenses of that year, passed the Louisiana House Wednesday by a unanimous vote. They had previously passed the Senate. The bill funding all valid outstanding bonds of the State at 60 cents on the dollar in 7 per per cent bonds, principal and interest secured by the foregoing Constitutional amendments, was also passed in the House by a large majority. It repeals all contingent debts of the State, consisting of bonds not issued and stock not subscribed, amounting to over $15,000,000. The bill with two slight amendments is substantially the same as recommended by the Chamber of Commerce. It goes to the Senate for concurrence.

A SUSPENDED JOURNAL. The suspension of L'Univers, the celebrated ultramontane journal of France, is decidedly significant, as showing somewhat unexpectedly the utter weakness of the ultramontane party. L'Univers, with M. Veuillot as its editor, was the organ of conservatism, legitimacy and the extreme claims of the Papal power. It spoke of "Henry V." as of the proper king of France, and upheld papal infallibility with the utmost ardor. The miracles of Lourdes and Salette, and the pilgrimages to those shrines, were all prominently discussed, or rather eulogized, in the now suspended journal. The latest and secret intelligence from Rome was to be found in its columns, and it was even supposed that some of its utterances were inspired by the Holy Father himself. That the ultra Roman Catholics should allow so subservient and useful a sheet to die, shows that they are weaker than is generally supposed.

LOSS OF SCHOONER IDA S. BURGESS. The following letter has been received at Providence, R. I., from the master of the schooner Ida S Burgess:

MATANZAS, Jan. 7, 1874.

Messrs. James A. Potter & Co:

Dear Sirs—I am sorry to inform you of the loss of the schooner Ida S. Burgess. We were dismasted in the gale of the 25th of December, and were on the wreck six days before we were taken off. Most of my men were so near gone that they had to be carried off the vessel. It was blowing a gale of wind at the time, and we could save nothing. We were taken off by the bark Wheatland of Boston, and brought to this port. Captain Goudy of the bark, has done all in his power to make it pleasant for us on board his vessel. He laid by us five hours, and had his boat swamped twice in getting us off. I shall come home as soon as possible.

Yours obd't,
R. P. LIMEBURNER.

The schooner Ida S. Burgess was a fore-and-aft, belonging in Belfast, Me., but partly owned by Providence parties. She was bound from Savannah for Providence with a cargo of resawed lumber, consigned to James A. Potter & Co. The vessel was valued at $12,000 and was partly insured. The cargo was valued at $3,200, which was also insured.

NEW HOMESTEAD BILL. The bill to secure homesteads to actual settlers reported from the Committee on Public Lands Wednesday, repeals the preemption laws and provides that any person above twenty one years of age and a citizen, shall be entitled to enter by purchase, with cash only, a tract not exceeding forty acres as a site for mechanical, commercial or manufacturing purposes, upon proof satisfactory to the Commissioner of the Land Office that he is in factual possession of such premises, and that no valid adverse claim existed at the date of his occupancy, and that he has occupied it a year.

State Temperance Convention

The people of Maine, of every religious denomination, political party, temperance organizations and of no organization, who believe in and practice total abstinence from all intoxicating drinks, and who are in favor of the suppression of their sale by every feasible, practical and effectual measure, are invited to meet in Mass Convention at

Meonian Hall, Augusta, on Wednesday, January, 28, 1874,

at 12 o'clock noon, to adopt such means as they may judge best to reform the inebriate, to save the young from the paths of intemperance, and to drive, if possible, the traffic from the land. Let there be a general rally. We need to encourage each other's hearts and strengthen each other's hands in this great work.
The usual reduction of fare on the several railroads may be expected.
The Convention will probably continue through Thursday.

Wilder's New Bobbin Winder,

winds the thread on a bobbin without the use of a person's hands, as even as thread is wound on a spool by the manufacturers. This, as every lady knows, is a very important thing in order to get an even tension, and it is very hard to do without these machines, which not only save an abundance of time, but wind one-third more thread on a bobbin. Whom Pope, the poet, tried to find,
But white-man BICKFORD—that's the one,
Who's always full of FISH and fun,)
And opes his clam-shells 'thus and so'—
"Call HERE, before you farther go,
Where Norombega's treasures are,
For which good house-wives have a care,
The TROUT, the PICKEREL, the COD,
Fresh harvest of the line and rod,
Rare OYSTERS, from Virginia's shore,
That gloating epicures adore;
Delicious TOGUE and LAKERS gay,
Just from Moosehead and Lily Bay;
Here, where that vile old Sal'y Grab,
Did first receive her fatal stab;
All come, partake of Bickford's cheer,
And thus insure a Happy Year!

MAINE NEWS.

FROM PORTLAND.

THE PISCATAQUIS PRISONERS.

PORTLAND, Jan. 22.

United States Marshal Marble arrested in Bangor and brought to Portland this afternoon, Deputy Sheriff Foss, of Piscataquis County, and Hon. Henry Hudson, who acted as attorney for the State, for arresting Deputy U. S. Marshal Head illegally and impeding him while in the discharge of his duty.

FROM AUGUSTA.

COMMITTEE HEARINGS.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 22.

The Committee on Judiciary gave a hearing on the act for the better preservation of human life in Maine, this afternoon, and adjourned to Tuesday at 2 o'clock P. M. for further consideration of the same subject.

The Committee on Interior Waters voted to report a bill to incorporate the Rockland & Thomaston Water Co., with a capital of $400,000.

THE EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

The Maine Editors and Publishers met in annual Convention in the Senate Chamber, this evening, with a full attendance. After the election of new members and other routine business, the following officers for the ensuing year were elected:—President, Geo. W. Drisko, of the Machias Union; Secretary, Joseph Wood, of the Wiscasset Oracle; Treasurer, C. E. Nash, of the Augusta Journal; Executive Committee, Stanley T. Pullen, of the Portland Press, L. A. Emery of the Ellsworth American, and H. R. Morrill of the Gardiner Journal. A committee was raised to arrange for the Summer Excursion. The meeting will hold two sessions to-morrow and Governor Dingley will entertain the members at the Augusta House in the evening.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

FORTY-THIRD CONGRESS

First Session.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.

SENATE.

Mr. Sargent presented a lengthy petition from Susan B. Anthony detailing the circumstances of her trial and conviction for voting in Rochester, N. Y., and asking that the fine imposed upon her be remitted. Referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

Mr. Scott introduced a resolution for the enactment of a law to provide for the issue of 3.65-100 bonds into which legal tenders can be converted. Referred.

Mr. Anthony from the Printing Committee reported favorably a resolution making it unlawful for the Congressional printer to print in the Congressional Record a speech or part of a speech not actually delivered in the Senate or House. Passed.

Mr. Sherman offered a resolution suspending the expenditure of the appropriations for all public buildings upon which work has not yet commenced and to cover such unexpended appropriations into the Treasury. Agreed to.

Mr. Clayton rose to a personal explanation and sent to the Clerk's desk to have read a paragraph in the Boston Daily Advertiser of Monday, in regard to a dispute between the Postmaster General and himself, which he denounced as false.

The consideration of the finance resolution was resumed and Mr. Boutwell addressed the Senate.

In commencing he replied to Schurz' remark that Boutwell's policy while Secretary of the Treasury was a "do nothing policy," by saying those opinions have been embodied upon the financial policy of the Government for the last five years.

After quite an extended speech from Mr. Boutwell the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

Mr. Houghton, of Cal., offered a bill for a uniform registry of seagoing vessels, to afford additional protection to life on shipboard and govern rebates on merchandise damaged on the voyage of importation. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

The conference report on the bill to pay official reporters was presented and gave rise to considerable discussion but was finally agreed to.

Mr. Dawes, of Mass., from Committee on Ways and Means, reported back adversely bills to repeal all taxation of bank checks and friction matches and moved their reference to the Committee of the Whole and make them the special order for Wednesday next. Agreed to.

Mr. Dawes also reported a bill to fix the amount of legal tenders at $400,000,000 and moved to make the bill a special order in the Committee of the Whole Thursday next.

Mr. Maynard, of Tenn., from the Committee on Banking and Currency, suggested that the consideration of this bill might be arranged to go on with such a measure of policy as the Committee on Banking and Currency might present.

Mr. Cox, of New York, wanted to see a little more definiteness in the matter. The bill settled nothing as to a future policy. The bill properly interpreted legalized the issue of the reserve, was a step away from resumption and the people would so regard it. The tendency was towards inflation.

Mr. Dawes' motion was agreed to.

The West Virginia contested election case was considered.

After a long discussion without coming to a vote the House at 4:30 took a recess till half-past seven.

The evening session was for consideration of the bill revising the statutes.

NEW YORK CITY.

DENSE FOG AGAIN.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22. The fog is so dense that objects fifty yards distant cannot be seen. Navigation both in the city and on the rivers each side of the city, is very difficult. All the ferry boats are delayed, and some of them have ceased to run. The wind is southwest.

CARLTON WANTED.

It is reported that extraordinary exertions are being made by the Union Trust Company to capture its former Secretary, Carlton, who absconded during the recent panic with $400,000.

THE CHURCH CONTROVERSY.

The call for a council of Congregational churches has been authorized by Dr. Buddington's church to advise on the whole subject involved in the correspondence between the churches of which Rev. Messrs. Storrs, Buddington and Beecher are the pastors.

AN ENTERPRISING FEMALE.

The police arrested on the street this morning Annie Brady, alias Annie Sinclair, for having on her person and in her possession female wearing apparel valued at over $4000, a bank book representing over $1000, and two pocket books containing money, all of which were stolen from Mrs. G. E. Matthews of East 30th street. The prisoner attempted to bribe the officer on the way to the station house. Annie was sent to Court. She was just discharged from Blackwell's Island, where she served a six months' sentence, and was highly recommended to Mrs. Matthews by the chaplain of the Institution.

THE COAL TRADE.

The meeting of Presidents of the different coal companies agreed as follows for this year: The trade will open on the 1st of March at an average advance of fifteen cents per ton above the prices of 1873; the price per ton will be afterwards advanced each month to the end of the season on the following scale: April 5 cents, May and June 10, July, August, September, October and November 15 cents. The general plan is substantially that pursued by the companies last year.

FROM BOSTON.

MEETING OF IRON AND STEEL CONSUMERS.

BOSTON, Jan. 22. The meeting of consumers of iron and steel held at the U. S. Hotel yesterday to form an organization to promote their interests, adopted a constitution and by-laws. The constitution declares the objects of the Association to be to secure legislation, but strictly forbids the use of money to secure the same. The following were elected permanent officers of the Association: President, George Barnes, Syracuse, N. Y.; Vice President, D. D. Dana, Boston; Secretary, Wm. H. Wood, N. Y.; Treasurer, C. B. Hill, Nashua, N. H.; Corresponding Secretary, W. F. Hall, Boston; Executive Committee, M. L. Fast, Canton, O.; Stephen E. Garrett, Cohoes, N. Y.; Fred L. Ames, No. Easton, Mass.

The meeting unanimously adopted the following resolution—

Resolved, That this Association respectfully petition the Congress of the United States to reduce the duty on steel and to make the impost wholly specific without regard to value.

After further consultation on minor matters, the meeting adjourned subject to the call of the Executive Committee.

FIRE.

A new unoccupied house in Dorchester District, owned by Cheever Newhall, was damaged last night by an incendiary fire. Loss $3,000; insured.

WASHINGTON.

DOUBTFUL CABINET RUMORS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22. A rumor was again in circulation last night that changes would soon occur in the Cabinet and it was stated that Secretary Richardson would resign the Treasuryship. The report lack official confirmation and that fact, in addition to the knowledge that Secretary Richardson so late as yesterday announced that he entertained no intention of resigning, renders it almost certain that the rumors are based upon no solid foundation.

THE DENIAL.

Judge Richardson says that the reports that he will soon tender his resignation as Secretary of the Treasury, are absolutely false.

THE JUDGES.

The President will, on Tuesday forenoon, entertain at dinner the Justices of the Supreme Court and other guests.

The commission of Justice Waite has not been prepared nor is it known when he will come to Washington.

THE LOUISIANA CASE.

Representatives Sheldon and Sypher, Ex-Senator Harris, and Revenue officer Pitkin, all of Louisiana, called on the President to-day to express, it is said, their views in opposition to the new election in that State. Senator Carpenter and Gen. Butler also had an interview with the President. It is asserted that these gentlemen are on the other side of the question in Louisiana.

MORTON AND PINCHBACK.

It is reported that Senator Morton's action with reference to Mr. Pinchback's seat in the Senate, was based upon the confession of Mr. Pinchback himself of the questionable practice in securing his election by the Louisiana Legislature. It is said that damaging reports about the election having reached Mr. Morton, he sent for Mr. Pinchback, who made a clean breast of it, whereupon Mr. Morton abandoned the policy of seating Mr. Pinchback on a prima facie case, and asked that the case be referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections, to investigate the conduct of Mr. Pinchback. The latter, it is said, is very angry at his treatment, declares for the new election, and threatens damaging disclosures regarding the operations of the politicians. The reason of his course is said to be his exclusion from the benefits and privileges of the Kellogg ring.

THE LEGAL TENDER BILL.

The following is the text of the bill reported to day by Mr. Dawes from the Ways and Means Committee:

Whereas the existing uncertainty as to whether the amount of legal tender notes now authorized by law to be kept in general circulation is $356,000,000 or $400,000,000 is calculated to derange business and unsettle values, therefore,

Be it enacted that the provisions of the law existing prior to the act approved April 12th, 1866, entitled an act to amend an act to provide ways and means to support the Government, approved March 3d, 1865, be and the same are hereby declared in force so as to authorize the amount of the legal tender notes of the United States to the amount of $400,000,000 to be kept in general circulation, and the total amount of United States notes issued or to be issued shall never exceed $400,000,000.

NEW YORK STATE.

FRESHET AT BUFFALO—AN ICE GORGE—OVER A MILLION DOLLARS OF DAMAGE.

BUFFALO, Jan. 22. The weather and high water caused the ice in Buffalo River to move about 11 o'clock this morning, piling it up with such force against the bridge over Ohio street, as to carry away that strong structure and in its course sweeping down the stream, piling them in one mass against the Michigan st. bridge. The bowsprits of vessels in their rapid course carried away the lower part of Plympton's elevator and inflicted serious damage to the City and Niagara elevators and of the N. Y. Central Railway Co. The loss is estimated at a million dollars. Damage to Plympton's elevator is $20,000. The Michigan-st. bridge still holds the accumulated mass, but should it give way there is no calculating the damage to vessels and property below.

TEN FIRST-CLASS VESSELS

COMPLETELY DEMOLISHED THE SHEDS

OVERFLOWING.

The water is now overflowing the banks and running into the lake through the Hamburg Canal. The greatest excitement prevails.

GEORGIA.

THE REWARD OF AMNESTY.

ATLANTA, Jan. 22. Joint resolutions have been passed by the General Assembly of this State condemning the Civil Rights bill. The resolutions affirm that the effect of the passage of will be to break up the public school system of Georgia. All the appropriations will be withheld by the Legislature should the bill pass.

NEW JERSEY.

DEATH FROM A MISTAKE.

TRENTON, Jan. 22. Dr. Livesey, a druggist, has been arrested for delivering Cyanide instead of Cedide of Potassium to J. A. Grant, resulting in the latter's death.

PACIFIC COAST

SHIP AND CREW LOST.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22. A telegram from Port Townsend, Washington Territory, announcing the total loss of the ship Panther and Capt. J. W. Balch with all on board, has been received. She was destined for San Francisco and sailed from Nanaimo, Washington Territory, on Saturday last in tow of the steam tug Goliah.

CONNECTICUT.

SALUTE IN HONOR OF JUDGE WAITE.

LYME, Jan. 22. At the old Lyme birthplace of Judge Waite, the citizens to-day fired a salute in honor of his appointment and confirmation as Chief Justice.

MISSOURI.

A SWINDLING FIRM.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 22. The firm of Sage & Co. has decamped, leaving the banks, merchants and business men their victims to the tune of several thousand dollars. Two hundred barrels on which they obtained an advance of $5,000 from a bank proved to be filled with water instead of whiskey. They ostensibly were in the wholesale liquor business and opened on the 1st of January.

THE WEATHER.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER,
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22—8 P. M.

PROBABILITIES.

For New England, and thence westward over the northern portion of the Middle States, cloudy weather with rain, continued high temperature and falling barometer during a portion of the day, the winds on the coasts increasing in force.

FOREIGN NEWS.

GREAT BRITAIN.

GOLDWIN SMITH ON AMERICAN SCHOOLS.

LONDON, Jan. 22. Goldwin Smith, in a speech at an educational meeting in Manchester last evening, explained and commended the common school system of the United States. He defended the Cornell University from the charge of irreligion, and maintained that the institution was quite equal to that of Oxford.

NOTE FROM BISMARCK.

The Times publishes the substance of a note from Bismarck which holds that the French Government are accountable for the violence of the Ultramontane Press in France.

PAREPA ILL—FOG AGAIN.

Madam Parepa Rosa is seriously ill. The city has been enveloped in a dense fog all the morning and at this hour, 12.30 P. M., there is no indication of its lifting.

FRANCE.

PAPER SUPPRESSED.

PARIS, Jan. 22. The Government has issued an order forbidding the sale of the newspaper L'Opinion Nationale.

SAN DOMINGO.

THE SAMANA BAY CO.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22. A cable despatch states that the Samana Bay Co. have negotiated in London a loan of $3,000,000, and as part of the negotiation the Company agree to take up the Hartwout bonds which had been repudiated by the Baez government.

CUBA.

INSURGENT VICTORY.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22. A despatch from Havana 17th inst. via Key West, and Washington, says that the Spaniards under Esponda, numbering 6500, met 1800 Insurgents at Los Melones, and after a fight of six and a half hours the Spaniards retired with a loss of fifty-four wounded. The Insurgents' loss is unknown.

Private Cuban advices report that Esponda had 1200 men, only 250 of whom escaped death, wounds or capture. The Cubans regard this as a great victory for them.

PROPOSED CONSCRIPTION.

It is semi-officially reported that preparations are being conducted for a draft of 20,000 men to suppress the insurrection. They will not be conscripted from the volunteers but from the Cubans and negroes who are to be freed, the majority of the conscripts being Cuban sympathizers. The proposed measure is regarded as absurd.

THE FORCED LOAN

of $30,000,000 is disagreeable to all, natives and foreigners. The latter pay because their business depends thereon.

RABBLE.

As the Worcester sailed from Havana the 15th with a band playing, a rabble congregated on the wharf and hissed as she passed, dipping her flag to Morro Castle and Spanish war vessels.

—Heavy fog this morning.

—Sidewalks shockingly slippery.

—One drunk in the lockup last night.

—Mild, thawy and foggy, yesterday.

—Assembly in Music Hall this evening.

—The sleighing about town was quite good yesterday, and much patronized.

—Buffalo Bill and his troupe will appear in Norombega Hall Feb. 4th and 5th.

—The Committee on Agriculture will visit the State College at Orono, Feb. 12.

—Lumbermen are getting discouraged, the frequent thaws interferring with operations in the woods.

—The Observer learns that Rev. J. M. Norris has so far recovered from his severe illness as to be able to ride out.

—Prof. M. C. Fernald of the State College has been appointed by the Governor a member of the Board of Agriculture for three years.

—N. K. Sawyer & Son, formerly of the Ellsworth American, are about to become editors of the Union, the leading Republican paper in Florida.

—A grand ball is to be given in Treat's Hall, Frankfort, on Thursday evening of next week. Music by five pieces from Andrews' orchestra.

—James F. Rawson, Wm. C. Crosby, Lester Dwinel and B. C. Addition of this city have been appointed Justices of the Peace and Quorum.

—Hon. Wm. P. Wingate has been seriously ill for a few days past with an ulcerated sore throat. We are pleased to learn that he was better yesterday.

—Rev. Mr. Knapp is recovering quite rapidly from his recent severe illness, and is able to go out. He will take a brief vacation for rest before resuming his pastoral duties.

—The sale of tickets to the Temple Quartette concert, opened well at Bugbee & Co.'s yesterday, and there will doubtless be a large audience to listen to this celebrated organization.

—An adjourned meeting of the Bangor Mechanic Association will be held this evening when the "committee on consolidation" will report, an amendment to the constitution will be considered, etc.

—The first masquerade ball in Acadian Hall this season, occurs this evening. Oakes' quadrille band will furnish music, and the manager gives assurance that no pains will be spared to make the ball a very pleasant affair.

—The New Brunswick Government is in communication with the E. & N. A. Railway Company in the endeavor to have some arrangement made whereby the travelling public may not be so long delayed as at present at McAdam Junction.

—A fourth steam boiler will be put into the Foxcroft spool factory soon, thus giving employment to several more hands. There are at present about forty persons employed at the works, besides a good force at Sebec lake cutting and getting out timber.

—The following names are on the bond of Hon. S. C. Hatch, the new State Treasurer-elect: Geo. W. Pickering, Samuel H. Blake, Chas. P. Brown, A. L. Simpson, of Bangor; G. W. Stanley, B. H. Cushman, Augusta; Samuel E. Spring, Portland. A strong bond.

—A temporary railroad bridge is rapidly building at Biddeford, on the site of that destroyed by fire a few days since, and it will probably be completed by the first of next week. A permanent iron bridge will probably be built over the temporary one as soon as possible.

—Deputy U. S. Marshals Marble and Head took Deputy Sheriff Foss of Abbott and Henry Hudson of Guilford, to Portland, yesterday. They will be at once arraigned for obstructing Deputy Marshal Head in arresting the two Halls in Piscataquis County, as has been mentioned in these columns.

—A meeting of horse breeders and fanciers was held in Augusta Wednesday. Hon T. S. Lang presided, and after some discussion Gen. W. S. Tilton of Augusta, Dr. S. H. Tewksbury and Charles R. Milliken of Portland, were appointed a committee to consider the subject of forming a State society.

—The second annual exhibition of the Maine Poultry Association will be held at Portland, on the 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th of January, 1875, provided a suitable hall can be procured. Besides the regular premiums, special premiums to the amount of about $1000 have already been pledged by individuals.

IMPORTANT RAILWAY MEETING. A meeting of the leading men in the Boston & Maine, Knox & Lincoln, and Penobscot Bay & River railroad companies was held in the first named company's office in Boston Wednesday. At this meeting, it is reported, it was decided to push the matter of building the Penobscot Bay & River road from this city to Rockland, and the combination formed is undoubtedly able to carry out its plans.

BANGOR AND PISCATAQUIS SLATE COMPANY. At the annual meeting of the stockholders of this company held at its office in this city on Wednesday, the following named gentlemen were elected Directors:—Lorenzo E. Sabine, Abner Lowell, C. B. Abbot, Thomas Mason, Chapin Humphrey, W. S. Clark and Zenas Lawry, jr. Subsequently the Directors chose L. E. Sabine President, Thomas Mason Secretary and Treasurer, and William Sparrow Superintendent at the Quarry.

SUDDEN DEATH. About one o'clock yesterday afternoon, Mr. Kelram Larkin, who had been out of health for some months past, suddenly dropped dead in a fit of apoplexy, while eating dinner in his room at the York Street House. The deceased was well known throughout the State as a horse fancier, having formerly owned the racer "Daniel Boone," and owning a number of trotting horses at the time of his death. He was fifty-eight years of age and unmarried, but leaves a brother in this city. The remains will be taken to Augusta for interment.

STOLEN PROPERTY RECOVERED. Marshal Bolton and officer John Pratt searched the house on Hancock st. where Whalen, whose theft of Engineer Hilton's bank-book was mentioned yesterday, had two trunks stored. These trunks were found to contain a lot of clothing, among which were a hat belonging to Mr. Hilton, and a pair of new pants, stolen from Mr. Chas. Johnson's room at the Franklin House. There were also a lot of small articles, evidently stolen somewhere, and about $500 worth of E. & N. A. and Maine Central railroad tickets, probably stolen from Hunting & Nichols, whose stage line to Moosehead was in connection with the railways.

STATE STATISTICS. The report of W. E. S. Whitman, Esq., State Statistician, has just been completed and will soon be published. It shows the condition and amount of product of all the industries of the State, and is a very valuable document. The following statement from the report (an extended summary of which we shall publish to-morrow) shows the aggregate production of the State for the past year:

Value of manufactured products,		$90,209,136
"	" principal agricultural products,	29,411,509
"	" live stock,	20,096,272
"	" factory cheese product,	55,783
"	" other dairy products,	9,125,000
"	" orchard products,	600,000
"	" products of market gardening,	390,600
"	" animals slaughtered or sold for slaughter,	3,000,000
"	" wool product,	558,057
"	" unspecified products,	300,000
	Total value,	$152,780,396

The total wealth of the State in real and personal property for the year 1873, valued on a true cash basis, is $212,808,688, an increase of $17,985,828, since 1870.

RECOGNITION OF GALLANT SEAMANSHIP. On the tenth of November last the schooner Jonas H. French, Capt. W. A. Harrington, sailed from Bay View, Gloucester, having on deck three stones, the largest of which weighed eighty-four tons, the whole forming a portion of the base of the National Scott Monument at Washington. The vessel was reported missing and was given up for lost, when she arrived safely at Washington and delivered her valuable deck load. Capt. Harrington reports that when seven days out and off Barnegat he encountered a severe gale, and finding it impossible to make headway in the face of the gale, he crowded on all sail and put his vessel before the wind. During the storm the crew insisted that he should throw the three stones overboard. Captain Harrington so far acceded to their demands as to cut away the bulwarks, telling his crew that if the storm did not abate in an hour he would throw over his deck load. He continued to parley with the men hour by hour, part of the day and an entire night, until on the fifth day there was an abatement of the gale. The vessel was put about and stood in for Cape Henry, having run nine hundred miles out of her course. In recognition of the gallant conduct of Capt. Harrington, who is a native of Rockport, in this State, the Cape Ann Granite Company, who quarried and shipped the stones for the monument, have presented him with a splendid gold Howard watch.

BANK CASHIERS. The Boston papers have been boasting of the age of the bank cashiers in that city, but we doubt if there is one there who has been in the service any longer than T. S. Dodd, Esq., of this city, who has since May 1832—a period of nearly forty-two years—held the position of Cashier of the Kenduskeag (now Kenduskeag National) Bank. The next oldest Cashier in point of service, in this city, is, we believe, John S. Ricker, Esq., who became Cashier of the old Mercantile Bank in 1838. The charter of this bank expired in 1857, but in August, 1859, Mr. Ricker took a similar position with the present Mercantile Bank, which he holds now. M. T. Stickney, Esq., has been Cashier of the Merchants (now Merchants National) Bank since January 10, 1851—a period of twenty-three years. Ebenezer Trask, Esq., who was formerly Cashier of the old Bangor Commercial Bank, became Cashier of the Traders (now Traders National) Bank July 4th, 1853, and since that date no one else has made a pen mark on any of his books except an occasional entry on the day book when he has been absent on account of sickness. Wm. S. Dennett, Esq., became Cashier of the old Bangor Bank (subsequently the Veazie Bank) in 1843, and served until 1851 when he took a similar position in the Bank of the State of Maine. In 1864 this bank became the Second National, and Mr. Dennett still retains the office of Cashier. Elias Merrill, Esq., has been cashier of the First National Bank since January, 1865. Edwin Clark, Esq., has held the office of Cashier of the Eastern Bank since September, 1867, and that of Treasurer of the Penobscot Savings Bank since 1869. J. Swett Rowe, Esq., of the Farmers National and Wm. C. Holt, Esq., of the Veazie (now Veazie National) Bank, have each had six years' experience as Cashiers. John Patten, Esq., was Treasurer of the old Bangor Savings Bank during its existence, and became Treasurer of the present bank of the same name Jan. 1, 1865.

THE MASQUERADE BALL, in Music Hall last evening, was, as was anticipated, one of the most brilliant affairs of the kind ever given in the city. The galleries were crowded to their utmost capacity with spectators, and even standing room was at a premium the first of the evening. The floor presented a gorgeous spectacle. Comparatively few dominoes were worn, and those in most cases only for a short time, over handsome costumes which were revealed at the unmasking of the wearers. The costumes of the ladies were especially deserving of mention for the taste displayed in their design and arrangement. A wide range of characters were assumed; kings and princes danced with milkmaids and tamborine girls; devils promenaded with nuns; mailed knights played the agreeable to sisters of charity; grave monks skipped about with gipsies; queens condescended to "trip the light fantastic" with plow-boys; army and navy officers with insignia of rank higher than ever before heard of, carried on a war of flirtation with maids of honor; wisdom and folly waltzed together; harlequins and princesses, clowns and duchesses, met on equal terms; night and morning met in the same set; the "press" and the "salary grab" appeared for a wonder in happy accord. The animal kingdom had representatives which would have driven Agassiz mad. An ape chattered with a grave owl; a parrot of monstrous size presented his "little bill" in the most insinuating manner; a goose and a donkey solemnly discussed the appointment of Chief Justice. But we cannot detail one quarter of the costumes nor the strange meetings which were to be observed. The unmasking at 10.30 was, as usual, a series of surprises, and a chorus of "Why! Is this you?" ran around the hall. Sixteen well selected dances were on the list, and Andrews' full orchestra furnished delicious music. Refreshments were served by Frazer, and everything was done in the best style.

The committee of arrangements—the same who conducted the K. P. promenades, Messrs. Huckins, Stern, Prescott, Clark, Dunning, Boynton, Hersey and Babb—are to be congratulated on their success in making preparations for and managing the ball, which will be long remembered by all present.

Reed et al. for conveyance of lot of land in township No. 11, R. 1, to D. M. Libby.

The credentials of J. M. Sockalexis, representative-elect from the Penobscot tribe of Indians were received.

Orders passed—

Relating to having a yearly printed report from the Agent of the Passamaquoddy tribe of Indians; granting aid to the widow of Capt. Peter Danna, an Indian who did the State service in the war of 1812; that the committee on Judiciary inquire into the expediency of amending Sec. 55, Chap. 89 R. S. by striking out the following, "and this shall not be exempt in any suit for necessaries furnished him or his family," that same committee inquire into the expediency of amending Sec. 8, chap. 136, first line R. S., by inserting "or justice of a municipal or police;" that the Committee on Agriculture inquire into the expediency of providing for the sale of eggs by weight; that they inquire into the expediency of amending Sec. 6, Chap. 6, R. S., so that the products when held by the purchaser shall be held exempt from taxation; that the same committee inquire into the expediency of providing for the sale of blueberries by weight; that the Committee on Banks and Banking inquire into the expediency of so legislating that savings banks may loan a limited amount of their deposits on notes signed by three responsible persons; that the Committee on Banks and Banking inquire into the expediency of so amending the laws relating to Savings Banks as to provide as follows, to wit: No savings bank or any person acting in its behalf, or in its interest, shall negotiate take or receive any fee commission, gift or other consideration for, or on account of any loan made by or on behalf of such bank, or for the benefit thereof either to their own use, or to the use of such bank, other than shall appear on the face of the note or contract upon which such loan shall purport to be made: provided that nothing herein contained shall apply to any expenses of examining titles and making conveyances upon loans made by savings banks; that the Committee on Fisheries inquire into the expediency of extending the close of time for taking land locked salmon in the St. Croix river; that the Railroad Committee inquire into the expediency of amending Sec. 42, Chap. 51, R. S. by striking out "one hundred and fifty" and inserting the words "five hundred"; that the Committee on Education inquire into the expediency of amending Sec. 7, Chap. 11, R. S., as to secure a more equal distinction of School fund.

An order was introduced calling for a committee of investigation into the affairs of the State Prison for ten years past, its management, money paid by the State to it, and received from the State from it; also as to the origin of the late fire and whether account of stock had been taken prior to it; also to inquire into its sanitary condition and the treatment of the inmates. The order caused some discussion. The order contemplated a committee of seven. After discussion and taking the yeas and nays the number was reduced to a joint select committee of one from the Senate and two from the House. The vote stood 98 to 47.

Adjourned.

The Providence Journal says: "There is to-day money enough in the great centres of trade; good security will bring money at a moderate rate; legitimate business has taken the place of speculation; the one great and potential drawback to the initiation of new or enlarged enterprises, is the doubt as to whether Congress will deal wisely or unwisely with this matter. Settle it that there is to be no inflation, and in three months the country would be on the high road to a prosperity more universal, and infinitely more substantial and safe than it has known for years."

The Carlists have withdrawn from Santander.

LETTER FROM AUGUSTA.

WORK OF THE LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEES.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 21.

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier:

Several Committees of the Legislature held meetings this afternoon.

THE COMMITTEE ON AGRICULTURE assigned Wednesday, the 28th of January, for hearing the Trustees of the State College of Agriculture upon such matters pertaining to the College as they may desire to submit. The Committee will visit the College Thursday, February 12th.

MANUFACTURES.

This committee is composed of earnest workers and entirely closed the docket for the day. They agreed to report bills incorporating the Newport Cheese Factory; the Aroostook Valley Dairying Association; the Enterprise Cheese Company; and the Elm Dale Cheese Company. A very good day for the cheese business that. They will also report bills to increase the capital stock of the Barnard Slate Quarry Co.; and to incorporate the Portland Cordage Company, and the Casco Tanning Company.

RAILROADS.

The petition for the extension of the Knox & Lincoln Railroad from Bath to Portland was under consideration and Mr. Reed, of Bath, presented as a substitute a bill to incorporate the Sagadahoc & Cumberland. The presentation was informal, as the new bill should have been presented to the Legislature and referred to the Committee, but the Committee waived this informality and referred the subject to a sub committee consisting of Senator Shaw, of Penobscot, and Representatives Knowlton, of Skowhegan, and Wentworth, of Kittery.

The bill to change the location of the Maine Central Railroad below Kendall's Mills was next considered. Ex-Gov. Anson P. Morrill appeared for the road, and S. S. Brown, of Fairfield, opposed. Mr. Brown desired to attach to the bill the amendment "to place the Maine Central under the control of the Legislature" which has been offered to every Legislature having a Maine Central matter under consideration; also other amendments relating to depot facilities. Gov. Morrill in behalf of the road was willing to furnish any amount of bond as to furnishing the depot facilities, and matters in that direction were mutually agreed upon. The Committee will report a bill granting substantially what the road asks for. They agreed to report a bill to extend the time for locating the Penobscot & Lake Megantic Railroad.

Assignments:—Bill to incorporate the Lincolnville Railroad to accommodate the lime quarries of that town, for Jan. 23.

Bangor & Piscataquis Railroad; extension for Jan. 28th, also bill to amend Chapter 24 Revised Statutes so as to require railroad and steamboat companies to support paupers in certain cases.

Union depot at North Berwick, Jan. 29th.

WAYS AND BRIDGES.

The Committee will report a bill to incorporate the Bangor & Brewer Steam Ferry Company, Albion A. Brastow and Leonard D. Smith, Corporators. The usual powers are granted and the ferry is to be established with two or more boats below the present toll-bridge between Bangor and Brewer. The boats are to run from 5 A. M. to 9 P. M. each day of the week, not excepting Sundays. The toll is to be one cent for each foot passenger; baggage not less than 25 lbs. and not over 100 lbs. 2 cents and one cent additional for each 100 lbs. or fraction thereof. The County Commissioners are not authorized to license any other ferry within a mile after this ferry is established.

Assignments:—Bangor Bridge Company, amendment of charter, for Jan. 28.

Application of town of Medford for aid to build bridge, Jan. 28.

Petition of town of Bridgewater for aid on road, for Jan. 28.

Petition of citizens of Oldtown to make Oldtown bridge free, for Feb. 4.

Petition of Oldtown Bridge Company for amendment of charter, for Feb. 4.

TOWNS.

This Committee has assigned the petitions to set off part of Cape Elizabeth to Portland, for February 10th.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL FOR GIRLS.

The Committee on Education will report a resolve accepting the donation of $12,500 from Mrs. Flagg and Mrs. Dummer and ex-Gov. Coburn, and appropriating $12,500 more for the endowment and maintenance of the school in Hallowell, to be expended by a board of Trustees, under the direction of the Governor and Council. A bill will also be reported providing for the appointment of the Trustees and other details of management.

W.

Patrick Crimmons, day watchman at the Torpedo station, Newport, R. I., was found dead of suffocation Wednesday night, about 10 o'clock.

Governor Allen of Ohio has been obliged, owing to the palsied condition of his hands, to ask the Legislature to pass a law allowing him to use a stamp instead of writing his signature upon official documents.

The House of Delegates of the canton of Neufchatel have resolved to have a large picture painted of Prof. Agassiz, for the new council chamber of that city, where Agassiz first made his name famous.

The License Alliance and the Druggists of New Hampshire held secret sessions at Concord Thursday, to devise means to secure a license law.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

DR. O. FITZGERALD, the wonderful Clairvoyant Physician and Surgeon, will visit Bangor, at Bangor House, Thursday, Jan 22d, and remain until Saturday, at 2 o'clock. Don't fail to see him; his cures are truly wonderful. 5t

HEART DISEASE.—Palpitation, Feeble and Irregular Action of the Heart cured by Fellows' Compound Syprup of Hypophosphites.—Freeport, Digby County N. S., Feb. 10, 1869. James I. Fellows, Esq. Dear Sir:—Gratitude to you, and sympathy for the afflicted, induce me to send you a written statement of my case and the cure effected by using your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites.

In April, 1858, I was attacked with palpitation of the heart, I sent for the doctor, and he said that nothing could be done for me, and that I was liable to die very suddenly; being very weak and unable to leave my bed, I became discouraged.

After my physician gave me up, I was induced to use your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, and the effect was wonderful. In two days I felt the benefit of it, and after taking half a bottle I was entirely free from the complaint, and to this day I have not been troubled with a return of the heart disease. Yours very truly, SARAH LENT.

Those who have coughed till they are tired will find relief by using Harlow & Sweet's Blood Root Candy.

THE SONG OF THE SNOWFLAKES.

We come, we come in a mist together,
Frozen pledges of wint'ry weather;
Lazily, leisurely floating along,
Like hapless fragments of bitten song;
Whirling and eddying the trees among,
Down down and, we know not wither.

We come, we come, in a tide together,
Like the foam upheaved in the windy weather,
Like feathers dropping from ange's' wings;
We cover the dusty face of things
With a pale-browed light which softly brings
Earth's winding-sheet down hither.

We come, we come, tho' all space together,
Mysteries wrought by the wind and weather;
Darkening the air with a murky pall,
Drifted about in a sinuous fall,
And we buffet and jostle the wanderers all
Floating round hither and thither.

We come, we come in a mass together,
Like the blossoms blown in the soft spring weather,
We seem to beat with measured mirth,
Songs of the clouds that give us birth
And we crouch and huddle round Mother Earth,

We come, we come o'er the hills together,
Like butterflies in the summer weather
In a airy troops—in vaster numbers,
Countless, noiseless, and Earth encumbers
Herself with garments, and then she slumbers—
And we rest in peace together.

COLLAMER'S LITTLE MISTAKE.—Old Mr. Collamer, one of the members of our church, is extremely deaf. Last Sunday the clergyman, during the sermon, had occasion to introduce a quotation, and as it was quite long, he brought the volume with him, and when the time came he picked up the book and began to read from it. We always sing the Old Hundred doxology after the sermon at our church, and Mr. Collamer, seeing the pastor with the book, thought the time had come; so, while the minister was reading, he opened his hymn book at the place. Just as the clergyman laid the volume down the man sitting next to Mr. Collamer, began to yawn, and Mr. Collamer, thinking he was about to sing, immediately broke out into Old Hundred at the top of his voice. As the clergyman was just beginning "secondly," and as there was of course perfect silence in the church, the effect of Mr. Collamer's vociferation was very startling. But the good old man didn't notice that anything was the matter, so he kept on and sang the entire verse through. When he concluded, he saw that everybody else seemed to be quiet, excepting a few who were laughing, so he leaned over and said out loud to the man who yawned, "What's the matter with this congregation, anyhow? Why don't they go home?" The man turned scarlet, then the perspiration broke out all over him, for he felt that the eyes of the congregation were upon him, and he would have to yell to make Mr. Collamer hear. So he touched his lips with his finger as a sign for the old man to keep quiet. But Mr. Collamer misunderstood the motion, "Going to sing another hymn, hey? All right," and he began to fumble his hymnbook again. Then the sexton sailed up the aisle, and explained matters out loud to Mr Collamer, and that gentleman subsided while the minister proceeded with his discourse.—The elders have written Mr. Collamer a note requesting him in the future not to join in the sacred harmony. The fact is too appalling upon the ribald boys in the gallery.—Man Adder

A NEW LINCOLN STORY.—Colonel Lewis D Campbell furnishes a new story about President Lincoln. He called upon the President during the war, and was kindly received with the question, "What can I do for you, Lew?" Informing him of my wish to go with McLean to Fort Lafayette, I said I desired him to give me a permit to do so—"Is that all?—most certainly will I," and picking up a blank card, he wrote on it in pencil:

"Allow Colonel Lew D. Campbell to enter Fort Lafayette. A. LINCOLN."

I read it, and thanking him, said, "All right, Mr President, as far as it goes, but I would much prefer to have you add one thing more." Taking the card again and reading it aloud, he inquired, "What more do you think necessary?" "Please add the words 'also to come out'" Catching the idea, he stretched out his long legs, and leaning back in his chair, he again laughed loud enough to be heard all over the mansion. After adding the words, which he said were very important in those days, he inquired, "Lew, why did you not remain in the army?—you ought to be there." I replied, "My health failed, and I could not have lived until now in the service. But why do you think I should have remained?" "Because," said he, "you seem to have the natural elements for successful military service. What you are disposed to push forward, you have at the same time the prudence to guard the rear and provide for a safe retreat, if necessary."

OFFICIAL.

POSTAL CONVENTION between the United States of America and the United Kingdoms of Sweden and Norway.

The undersigned, John A. J. Creswell, Postmaster-General of the United States of America, in virtue of the powers vested in him by law, and Oluf Stenersen, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of his Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway to the United States of America, in the name of his government, and by virtue of the powers which he has formally presented to this effect, have agreed upon the following articles, to wit:

ARTICLE 1

There shall be an exchange of correspondence between the United States of America and the United Kingdoms of Sweden and Norway. This exchange of correspondence shall embrace: 1. Letters, ordinary and registered. 2. Newspapers, books, prints of all kinds, (comprising maps, plans, engravings, drawings, photographs, lithographs, and all other like productions of mechanical processes, sheets of music, &c.,) and patterns or samples of merchandise, including grains and seeds. Such correspondence shall be exchanged whether originating in the United States and destined for either of the United Kingdoms, or vice versa, or originating in, or destined for, such foreign countries to which the contracting countries may serve as intermediaries.

ARTICLE 2.

The offices for the exchange of mails shall be—on the part of Sweden—1. Goteborg; 2. The Travelling Post-office No. 1 between Goteborg and Stockholm, 3. The Travelling Post-office No. 2 between Marmo and Falkoping. On the part of Norway—1. Christianssand, 2. Christiania, 3. The Sea Post-office on the Steamboat line between Hammerfest and Hamburg, and on the part of the United States—1. New York; 2. Chicago.

The respective Postal Administrations are authorized, if circumstances should require it, to discontinue any of the offices designated for the exchange of mails, or to establish others in their place.

ARTICLE 3.

The Post-Offices of Sweden and Norway shall make their own arrangements for the dispatch of mails to the United States; and in like manner the Post-Office of the United States shall make arrangements for the despatch of mails to Sweden and Norway. The mails shall be forwarded by regular routes of communication, and each office shall, at its own cost, pay the expense of the intermediate transportation (sea and territorial) of the mails which it despatches to the other country. It is agreed that the cost of the international, ocean, and territorial transit of closed mails, exchanged in either direction, between the frontiers of the respective countries, shall be first defrayed by that one of the offices which shall have obtained from the post-offices of the intermediary countries the most favorable terms for such conveyance, and any amount so advanced by one office, for and on account of the other, shall be promptly re-imbursed.

ARTICLE 4.

The standard weight for the single rate of postage shall be—

1 For letters, 15 grammes.

2 For all other correspondence mentioned in the second paragraph of the first article, that which each office adopts for the mails which it despatches to the other, be adapted to the regulations prescribed for such correspondence in the despatching country. Each office shall, however, give notice to the other of the standard weight it adopts and of any subsequent change thereof.

The rule of progression shall be an additional single rate for each additional single weight or fraction thereof.

The weight stated by the despatching office shall always be accepted, except in the case of manifest error.

ARTICLE 5.

The single rate of postage for letter correspondence exchanged in direct mails between either of the United Kingdoms and the United States, shall be—

[Translation.]

We, Oscar, by the grace of God King of Sweden, Norway, the Goths and the Vandals, make known that whereas, We and the United States of America have found it expedient and necessary to enter into negotiations, having for their object the conclusion of a postal convention, and our Minister, duly authorized for that purpose, having, on the 15th day of March, in the present year, with the Postmaster-General of the United States, established, concluded, signed, and with his seal provided a convention, word for word as follows.

(See Convention above.)

Therefore, We have desired to ratify, approve and accept the convention so concluded, with all its articles paragraphs, and clauses, and We do by these presents, in the most express terms, approve, accept, and ratify the same, and We will sincerely and honestly uphold, and fulfill the foregoing convention and all its articles, paragraphs, and clauses.

In witness whereof We have, with our own hand, signed and caused the same to be confirmed by our royal seal.

Done at Stockholm Castle, on the sixteenth day of the month of May, in the year after the birth of our Lord and Saviour one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

DETAILED REGULATIONS agreed upon between the Post-Office of the United States and the Postal Administration of Sweden for the execution of the Convention of the 15th of March, 1873, between the United States of America and the Kingdoms of Sweden and Norway.

ARTICLE 1.

The American exchange offices of New York and Chicago shall make up mails for the Swedish exchange offices of Goteborg, the travelling post-office No. 1 between Goteborg and Stockholm, and the travelling post-office No. 2 between Malmo and Falkoping.

The latter shall make up mails for the exchange offices of New York and Chicago.

Table A hereto annexed, indicates the correspondence to be distributed to each exchange office.

ARTICLE 2.

Each mail exchanged between the respective offices shall be accompanied by a letter-bill showing the postages and the charges of transit, the fees, &c., accruing to each office upon the different kinds of correspondence.

The form of this letter-bill shall follow the models B1 and B2, hereto annexed, and shall be consecutively numbered by the despatching office during each quarter of the calendar year.

The receiving office shall acknowledge its receipt by the next dispatch.

ARTICLE 3

The exchange offices shall divide the correspondence which they despatch into a suitable number of separate packages according to the letter-bill.

Each of these packages shall bear the proper etiquette and numbers corresponding to the letter-bill.

ARTICLE 4.

When more than a single rate is chargeable upon any letter or other article, the number of rates to which it is subject shall be indicated by the despatching office by a figure in the upper left corner of the address.

ARTICLE 5.

Registered correspondence shall be described in a register list, following the models C1 and C2, hereto annexed.

All registered letters and the register-list shall be enveloped together, in strong paper, and securely fastened, and the packet plainly inscribed with the word "Registered" or "Rekommenderade," and placed in the mail.

The blank in the registered-letter list for expressing the number of registered articles shall be filled in letters and figures expressing the number. In case no registered articles are sent, the proper blank of the letter-bill shall be filled with the word "Nihil," or "Nul."

ARTICLE 6.

The register lists despatched shall be returned by the receiving office, which office shall acknowledge by the first mail the receipt of the registered articles, numerically, from No. —— to No. ——.

If the verification by the exchange office disclose an error of any kind in the register-list it shall be also by the first mail notified to the despatching office.

ARTICLE 7.

The two administrations mutually engage to take all needful measures for the careful transmission of registered correspondence and for punishing it when lost, but it is understood that neither assumes towards the other any pecuniary responsibility in case of loss.

ARTICLE 8.

All letters exchanged between the several offices shall indicate by stamp or writing thereon, the office of origin, and the unpaid letters so exchanged shall also be stamped with the name of the dispatching office of exchange.

Correspondence fully paid to destination shall be stamped in the United States "Paid all," and in Sweden "Franco."

CONVENTION between the United States of America and Denmark. Naturalization. Concluded July 20, 1872; ratified January 22, 1873, exchanged March 14, 1873, proclaimed April 15, 1873.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas a convention between the United States of America and His Majesty the King of Denmark, relative to the naturalization of citizens and subjects of the two countries, was concluded and signed at Copenhagen by their respective plenipotentiaries on the twentieth day of July, 1872, the original of which convention, being in the English and Danish languages, is word for word as follows.

The United States of America and His Majesty the King of Denmark being desirous to regulate the citizenship of the citizens of the United States of America who have emigrated, or who may emigrate, from the United States of America to the Kingdom of Denmark, and of Danish subjects who have emigrated or who may emigrate, from the Kingdom of Denmark to the United States of America, have resolved to conclude a convention for that purpose, and have named as their plenipotentiaries, that is to say, the President of the United States of America, Michael J. Cramer, minister resident of the United States of America at Copenhagen, and His Majesty the King of Denmark: Otto Ditlev Baron Rosenorn-Lehn, commander of Danebrog and Danebrogsmand, chamberlain, His Majesty's minister for foreign affairs, &c., &c., &c.,

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found to be in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following articles, to wit:

ARTICLE 1.

Citizens of the United States of America who have become, or shall become, and are, naturalized, according to law, within the Kingdom of Denmark as Danish subjects, shall be held by the United States of America to be in all respects and for all purposes Danish subjects, and shall be treated as such by the United States of America.

In like manner, Danish subjects who have become, or shall become, and are, naturalized, according to law, within the United States of America as citizens thereof, shall be held by the Kingdom of Denmark to be in all respects and for all purposes as citizens of the United States of America, and shall be treated as such by the Kingdom of Denmark.

ARTICLE 2.

If any such citizen of the United States, as aforesaid, naturalized within the Kingdom of Denmark as a Danish subject, should renew his residence in the United States, the United States Government may, on his application, and on such conditions as that Government may see fit to impose, re-admit him to the character and privileges of a citizen of the United States, and the Danish government shall not, in that case, claim him as a Danish subject on account of his former naturalization.

In like manner, if any such Danish subject, as aforesaid, naturalized within the United States as a citizen thereof, should renew his residence within the Kingdom of Denmark, His Majesty's Government may, on his application, and on such conditions as that Government may think fit to impose, re-admit him to the character and privileges of a Danish subject and the United States Government shall not, in that case, claim him as a citizen of the United States on account of his former naturalization.

ARTICLE 3

If, however, a citizen of the United States, naturalized in Denmark, shall renew his residence in the former country without the intent to return to that in which he was naturalized, he shall be held to have renounced his naturalization.

In like manner, if a Dane, naturalized in the United States, shall renew his residence in Denmark without the intent to return to the former country he shall be held to have renounced his naturalization in the United States.

The intent not to return may be held to exist when a person naturalized in the one country shall reside more than two years in the other country.

ARTICLE 4.

The present convention shall go into effect immediately on or after the exchange of the ratifications, and shall continue in force for ten years. If neither party shall have given to the other six months' previous notice of its intention then to terminate the same, it shall further remain in force until the end of twelve months after either of the contracting parties shall have given notice to the other of such intention.

ARTICLE 5

The present convention shall be ratified by the President of the United States of America, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate thereof and by His Majesty the King of Denmark, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Copenhagen as soon as may be, within eight months from the date hereof.

In witness whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto [illegible]

[illegible]

GENERAL CONVENTION OF FRIENDSHIP, COMMERCE AND EXTRADITION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND THE ORANGE FREE STATE.

The United States of America and the Orange Free State, equally animated [illegible] friendship [illegible] between the two [illegible] have [illegible] the most [illegible] for that purpose [illegible] plenipotentiaries [illegible] have agreed to the following articles:

ARTICLE 1.

There shall be [illegible] the citizens of the Orange Free State [illegible] No higher [illegible] the citizens of the country where they reside, [illegible]

The foregoing privileges, however, [illegible]

ARTICLE 2.

The citizens of one of the two countries residing or established in the other shall be free from personal military service; but they shall be [illegible] the pecuniary or other contributions which may be required, by way of compensation, from citizens of the country where they reside, who are exempt from the said service.

No higher impost, under whatever name, shall be exacted from the citizens of one of the two countries residing or established in the other than shall be levied upon citizens of the country in which they reside, nor any contribution whatever to which the latter shall not be liable.

In case of war or of the expropriation of property for public purposes the citizens of one of the two countries residing or established in the other shall be placed upon an equal footing with the citizens of the country in which they reside with respect to indemnities for damages they may have sustained.

ARTICLE 3.

The citizens of each one of the two countries shall have power to dispose of their personal property within the jurisdiction of the other, by sale, testament, donation, or in any other manner, and their heirs, whether by [illegible] or ab intestato, or their successors, being citizens of the other party, shall succeed to the said property or inherit it; and they may take possession thereof, either by themselves or by others acting for them; they may dispose of the same as they may think proper, paying no other charges than those to which the inhabitants of the country wherein the said property is situated shall be liable to pay in a similar case. In the absence of such heir, heirs, or other successors, the same care shall be taken by the authorities for the preservation of the property that would be taken for the preservation of the property of a native of the same country, until the lawful proprietor shall have had time to take measures for possessing himself of the same.

ARTICLE 14.

This convention shall be submitted on both sides to the approval and ratification of the respective competent authorities, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Washington as soon as circumstances shall admit. In faith whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed the above articles, and have thereunto affixed their seals.

Done in quadruplicate at Bloemfontein this 22d day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one

[SEAL] W. W. EDGCOMB.
[SEAL] F. K. HOHNE.

And whereas, the said general convention has been duly ratified on both parts, and the respective ratifications of the same were exchanged at Washington on the eighteenth instant:

Now, therefore, be it known that I, ULYSSES S. GRANT, President of the United States of America, have caused the said convention to be made public, to the end that the same and every clause and article thereof may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States and the citizens thereof.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this twenty-third day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and of the Independence of the United States the ninety-eighth.
